

The Referral Process

If you think you need help, or you know a child or youth
who needs help, there are two ways to refer to the Aboriginal Child & Youth Mental Health Program:

Contact Denisiqi Services Society @ 250-392-6500 and ask the Intake Worker to complete a referral form over the phone.

Complete a referral form which are available at doctors' offices, schools, MCFD, the Cariboo Friendship Society, or Denisiqi Services Society. Fax it to:

OUR MISSION

Through the exercise of inherent responsibility and increased jurisdictional control, Denisiqi Services Society delivers holistic, strengths-based, culturally relevant child and family programs, services and referrals for Tsilhqot'in and Ulkatchot'en.

The Goals of the ACYMH:

- ◆ Provide access for Aboriginal children and youth to culturally relevant mental wellness programs
- ◆ Provide consultation and education services to community agencies
- ◆ Raise awareness and increase knowledge about mental health and well-being

Aboriginal Child & Youth Mental Health

The Aboriginal Child and Youth Mental Health team includes clinical counselling, group work, personal development workshops, and outreach, as well as youth work through our partners at the Cariboo Friendship Society.

Eligibility

The Denisiqi ACYMH program is open to Aboriginal Children and Youth (under the age of 19) and their families.

ALL services are offered at no cost to clients, and are confidential.
