

DENISIQI SERVICES SOCIETY
Employment Opportunity

CLINICAL COUNSELLOR
ABORIGINAL CHILD & YOUTH MENTAL HEALTH

Denisiqi Services Society is a growing Delegated Aboriginal Agency delivering innovative, culturally infused child and family services and programs in Williams Lake and in our six member communities of the Tsilhqot'in Nation and Ulkatcho First Nation.

Salary: $39.00 - $44.57 /hr + Competitive Pension and Benefits Package

Qualifications:

A Master's degree in Social Work, Masters of Education in Counselling, (clinical specialty or equivalent training/education), Clinical Psychology, Child and Youth Care, or equivalent; or a Master's or Bachelor's Degree in Nursing and registered under the Registered Nursing Association of BC and/or the College of Registered Psychiatric Nurses of BC.

Indigenous Focusing Orientated Therapy Certification or be willing to obtain throughout employment.

Knowledge of and willingness to learn about Tsilhqot'in and Carrier history, cultural values, practices, and protocols to inform all aspects of the program.

Valid class 5 Driver's License and satisfactory Criminal Record Screening required.

Must be willing to work evenings and weekends as required. Travel out to rural communities is required.

Responsibilities:

Under the direction of the Clinical Director, the Clinician works from a holistic and strength-based perspective to provide direct clinical services such as intake, assessment, treatment planning and delivery, and crisis intervention for children, youth and their families. The position also includes the facilitation of group programs (ie, school-based outreach, youth groups, family groups), as well as strong working relationships with our community partners and communities.
